

South Broadway Cultural Center and Matraka Inc.

present

ROSALIA DE ARAGON

Canta Nuevo México

The mystical and angelic voice of Rosalia de Aragon leads the audience on a journey through New Mexico Hispanic music as she sings New Mexico's traditional songs arranged in a variety of musical styles from traditional to contemporary Rancheras. Processions, reenactments and dance are intertwined with the beautiful voice of renowned performer Rosalia de Aragon. She will be accompanied by some of New Mexico's popular musicians. Another musical form will be alabados which were used to unify the various elements of the Penitente and Carmelita rituals, which should also be considered an integral part of the Hispanic culture of this region. Rosalia's passion and love of the music, culture, and traditions of New Mexico is shared with the audience as they experience this historical journey. Rosalia is best known for her portrayal of New Mexico's famous ghost La Llorona.

ONLY ONE PERFORMANCE! Show date Sunday, March 25, 2007 at 2:00 p.m.
For information and tickets contact the South Broadway Cultural Center at 1025 Broadway SE, Call (505)848-1320) or Matraka Inc. at (505)379-3230.
Arrangement for disabled special sitting should be made a week in advance.

General admission: $15.00 (On day of performance)
Groups of ten or more, Seniors, and Students: $10.00 each